SUBJECT: AMBASSADOR PRESSES THAI MFA ON BURMA ENERGY

REF: 07 STATE 169643

Classified By: Ambassador Eric G. John, reasons 1.4 (b) and (d)

(C) During a January 2 courtesy call on Foreign Ministry Permanent Secretary Virasakdi, the Ambassador raised reftel points regarding Thailand's energy relationship with Burma. The Ambassador also noted that the U.S. understood that Thailand, as a neighbor of Burma, had strategic and economic concerns that played a major role in the relationship. That said, the Ambassador noted, Washington hoped that the incoming, democratically-elected Thai government could increase the public rhetoric calling for democracy and greater respect for human rights in Burma, as well as reexamine its economic relationship with the regime. Virasakdi said he understood the U.S. position and would share the Ambassador's comments with the incoming Foreign Minister, whoever that turned out to be. "Point taken," Virasakdi concluded.
